CALLS CITIZENS TO OBSERVE

Every citizen of the Common-Carpenters are scarce and the tice day, November 11, in a proclawealth is called on to observe armisher supply is far below the mation issued by Governor Morrow. who requests all former service men and women to be present at ceremonies commemorating the participation of Kentucky men and women in the World War. The proclamation

"To the People of Kentucky, Greeting:

"November 11 is armistice day. It marks the anniversary of the day when peace came back to earth; the great World War terminated in splendid victory. It is a great day in the history of the world and should be forever commemorated. It is signified in every patriot's heart by the memory of those who dared all, offered all and gave all for their country's cause-who preserved every past glory of the republic and who added new luster to our history as a people.

"I, therefore, call upon every citizen of the Commonwealth to observe this day, and especially upon every ex-service man and woman to assemble at the posts of the American Legion, or at other appropriate places, in the uniform of their country, to be present at ceremonies to be held for the purpose of commemorating the services of Kentucky men and women in the great war, and to itstill into every heart the love of country, and to give birth to a new consecration to the principles which gave birth to and has forever kept the republic."
